

NEWFIELD EXPLORATION COMPANY

FINANCIAL CODE OF ETHICS

Amended and Restated Effective as of August 10, 2016

This Financial Code of Ethics (this “Financial Code”) of Newfield Exploration Company (“Newfield”) was adopted by the Board of Directors of Newfield (the “Board”) effective as of the date set forth above. This Financial Code sets forth the ethical principles by which the chief executive officer, chief financial officer and controller or principal accounting officer or, if no person holds any of those offices, the person or persons performing similar functions (the “Senior Financial Officers”) are expected to conduct themselves when carrying out their duties and responsibilities. The Senior Financial Officers also must comply with Newfield’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics.

Ethical Principles

In carrying out his or her duties to and responsibilities for Newfield, each Senior Financial Officer will:

1. act ethically with honesty and integrity, including the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships;
2. avoid conflicts of interest by:
 - disclosing to the Audit Committee of the Board any material transaction or relationship that reasonably could be expected to give rise to such a conflict; and
 - complying with the procedures, limitations, additional disclosure and reporting obligations and other requirements that the Audit Committee may establish to mitigate or eliminate the conflict of interest or its effects on Newfield;
3. provide full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in reports and documents that Newfield files with, or submits to, the United States Securities and Exchange Commission and in other public communications that Newfield makes;
4. comply in all material respects with all applicable laws, rules and regulations of national, state, provincial and local governments;
5. act in good faith, responsibly, with due care and diligence, without misrepresenting material facts or allowing his or her independent judgment on behalf of Newfield to be subordinated to other interests;
6. promote ethical behavior by others in the work environment;

Waivers

Consents obtained pursuant to this Financial Code, or waivers of any provision of this Financial Code, will be made only by the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee of the Board, unless the committee defers the matter to the full Board. Anyone seeking a waiver should disclose all pertinent facts and circumstances to the compliance officer, respond to inquiries for additional information, explain why the waiver is necessary, appropriate, or in the best interests of Newfield, and comply with any procedures that may be required to protect Newfield in connection with a waiver. If a waiver of this Financial Code is granted, appropriate disclosure will be made promptly in accordance with applicable laws, rules and regulations.

Compliance and Reporting Procedures

Enforcement of sound ethical standards is the responsibility of every employee and director of Newfield. Violations and reasonable suspicions of violations of this Financial Code should be reported promptly to the Audit Committee of the Board. You should make full disclosure of all pertinent facts and circumstances, taking care to distinguish between matters that are certain and matters that are suspicions, worries or speculation, and also taking care to avoid premature conclusions or alarmist statements since the situation may involve circumstances unknown to you. You can also use the Ethics Line to confidentially and anonymously report concerns. The telephone number and internet address of the Ethics Line are posted on Newfield's website. Newfield does not permit retaliation of any kind for good faith reports of possible ethical or legal violations. However, making a report knowing it is false or willfully disregarding its truth or accuracy, or engaging in any other bad faith use of the reporting system, violates Newfield's Corporate Code of Business Conduct and Ethics.

Each employee and each director of Newfield shall be provided access to a copy of this Financial Code, which is posted on the Company's website. Each Senior Financial Officer shall sign a written affirmation acknowledging that such Senior Financial Officer has received and read this Financial Code and understands its contents. The affirmation may be separate from or included within another affirmation or acknowledgment relating to codes of conduct and ethics, employee manuals, handbooks or other materials supplied to Senior Financial Officers. Any employee or director to whom this Financial Code has been provided may be required, from time to time, to sign a written affirmation stating that such person (a) has received and read this Financial Code and understands its contents and (b) has no knowledge of any violation of this Financial Code that has not been communicated previously to the Audit Committee of the Board or the Ethics Line.

Violations

Each person is accountable for his or her compliance with this Financial Code. Violations of this Financial Code may result in disciplinary action against the violator, including counseling, oral or written reprimands, warnings, probation or suspension without pay, demotions, reductions in salary, termination of employment or restitution. Each violation will be judged by the Audit Committee on its own merits considering the duties of the person and the significance of the circumstances involved.

Amendments

The Board may amend this Financial Code at any time, consistent with the requirements of applicable laws, rule and regulations. Amendments to this Financial Code will be promptly disclosed to the extent required in accordance with such requirements.
